mington and Baltimore R. R. to Philadelphia. THE great tunnels upon the new part of the line are now fully completed, and the whole road is in fine condition, presenting one of the most picturesque and romantic routes in the world. The greatest care for the comfort and safety of passengers is constantly exercised by the officers and agents of this Company, and there is no saier road in the United States, notwithstanding the reports of interested and unscrupulous agents of other routes to the contrary.

The new and splendid steamers of the Union Line from Louisville, Madison and Cincinnati, connect with the road at Wheeling, and through tickets from these places to Baltimore, Washington, Philadelphia, &c., may be had of J. T. Morehead, on the Levee, at Louis ville, or the boats (of the Union Line only) at Louisville. The steamers leave the wharf at Louisville daily for Wheeling, where passengers and baggage are carefully transferred to the cars. The express mail train leaves Wheeling daily, at half past 8 a. m., and arrive at Cumberland (201 miles) at P. M., and allowing two hours there arrives in Balti
